THE JUNIORS.

On the No. 2 ground, two good "B" Grade matches are set down. The early fixture is Leichhardt v. Balmmain Gladstones, and the later one, Annandale Altona v. Lilyfield.

Y.M.C.A. CLUBS.

One of the most notable features in the Junior Competitions this season is the appearance of two Y.M.C.A. teams.

The most particular is the team which hails from Camperdown Y.M.C.A., which is in the Third Division of the "C" Grade Competition. This team was entered in the competition as soon as the branch work of the Sydney Y.M.C.A. at Camperdown was commenced, and although the team has suffered two defeats as against one win to date, they have not lost heart, and from accounts they intend to make things hum for the teams which have the misfortune to meet them.

The other team which consists of members of the Y.M.C.A. is the one under the name of the City Y.M.C.A., which is in the "B" Grade, and although they have not yet won any matches, they have, like their brother members of the Camperdown Y.M.C.A., decided to make the best of their defeats and buck in for the future.

NEW ZEALAND TOUR

The Australian team touring the Dominions played their first match on Saturday last against Wanganui, and were successful by 3 goals to 1; the game was played in a cold southerly wind.

At half-time the score was 1 to nil in favour of Australia, scorers being J. Cumberland, the Queensland forward.

Play in the second spell proved of an even character, and New Zealand equalised Cooper doing the trick.

Within seven minutes of the final whistle, Bratten and Cumberland scored, leaving the Australian team victors by 3-1.

All the goals for Australia were scored by Queensland players.

To-day they meet Wellington.

It is regretted that Centre-forward W. Maunder received injuries necessitating his removal from the field.

AUSTRALIA WINS.

The Association Football Match between Australia v. Nelson (N.Z.), resulted in a win for the visitors.

Half-time Score:—
Australia 3. Nelson 0.

The Final Whistle Score:—
Australia 8. Nelson 2.

EDITORIAL.

In each issue of this publication you will have read appeals for names to be handed in of those willing to become referees. Many matches have been played this season without officially endorsed gentlemen having control of the games. Why? And who is to blame?

For many years this work was done in an honorary capacity, since when small fees were paid. And now that they have been increased there is a greater shortage than ever. Again, why? We say advisedly that it is through lack of appreciation on the part of players, and more so on the part of spectators. Respect from those playing is due to the official in charge, and more understanding and tolerance from those on the line. If those who are supporting a team only knew how much they irritate and unconsciously bias a referee with their "heckling" and "abuse," they would stop it for the sake of their own players. Players again can, and should, take a referees' decision as all in the game. Why do players persist in treating referees as enemies instead of looking upon them as their greatest friends and helpers? Does it ever occur to the abusers to thank an officer so acting for his kindness in giving up the whole of his afternoon to their pleasure. Dozens of good men stand out on the line who are quite competent to act, but will not do so, because they will not be made the butt of such abuse and such ingratitude. When in those rare cases a referee gives a palpably wrong decision, it is quite competent and manly for the captain to speak up and ask the referee to state that he intends to challenge such decision. This can be done, and the game go on, leaving it to those experts to decide who have charge of the game at their next meeting. Certainly a referee is not sacrosanct, but there is a gentlemanly way of questioning his decision, and most of those acting would gladly welcome it that way. Let us therefore resolve to pay the respect to the referee that his good service entitles him to, which is very much more than he is getting now.

INTERNATIONAL

An intimation has now been received from the Football Association, London, that the question of sending a team to Australia in 1923 will be considered by the International Selection Committee at its next meeting.

Soccer enthusiasts in Australia will await the decision with more than a considerable amount of interest. It is to be hoped that definite terms will be to hand before the conclusion of the New Zealand tour, in order to secure a working agreement with N.Z., while our Soccer lawyers are on the spot.

Considerable preparations have been made to ensure that the financial aspect is a success, and, on receipt of definite proposals from Great Britain, the necessary machinery will be immediately set in motion to achieve our objective.

All States are eagerly waiting a move from England, and are optimistic regarding their ability to raise the quota allotted to them. Several have signified their desire to proceed, but it cannot be considered wise to go ahead with the raising of money, though it may be possible and sound to " earmark " any definite promises of financial support.

The N.S.W.S.A., at its April meeting, empowered Messrs. F. W. Barlow and F. C. Packer, to go into the matter of the ways and means of raising the necessary money in which to finance the English tour. These gentlemen have now finished their arduous task, and at a meeting of representatives of all Associations, together with Mr. Morgan, manager of the Australian team in New Zealand, the report was discussed and a digest of same will be placed before the New Zealand Association for consideration.

NEW ZEALAND TOUR.

Reports received from the Dominions indicate that our boys received a royal reception at the hands of the N.Z. Association. On arrival the team was met by Mr. C. Fordham (chairman), B. L. Salmon (secretary), W. Reynolds (assistant secretary), and members of the N.Z. Council, and were accorded a hearty welcome. The Mayor of Wellington presided over a civic reception, when representatives of the Prime Minister and Wellington Football Association were present.

Telegrams from various Rugby Union Associations were received, wishing the "Soccerites" a successful tour.

The Mayor (Mr. R. A. Wright, M.P.), in the course of his address, said, "Association Football had made considerable headway in the British Dominions, and it was safe to say that the sun never sets on the Soccer game." He felt sure the Soccer team would get a fair field, in fact more than they required. Mr. Morgan (manager), responding on behalf of the Australians, expressed thanks for the hearty welcome. He felt sure his team would deliver the goods, and also take away the ashes.

Mr. S. A. Storey (hon. secretary, N.S.W.F.A.) gave a brief outline of the expansion of our code in Australia, and also referred to the proposed visit of an English team, and felt sure New Zealand would have no difficulty in raising the quota of £3000.

A detailed itinerary of the tour has come to hand, and the manner in which it has been drawn up signifies that no stone has been left unturned to make the visit of the Australian team a success, both as regards the playing and social side.

PERSONAL PARS

Mr. OSCAR LIND.

Soccerites generally, will be gratified to learn of the success achieved in the journalistic world by Mr. Oscar Lind, recently appointed to the responsible position of sporting editor on the staff of the Sydney "Daily Telegraph."

Mr. Lind was the first hon. secretary of the Metropolitan Junior Association, and it is due to the pioneering work performed that the big successes of to-day are possible. After being associated with the Pyrmont District Club for a period, Mr. Lind organised the Sydney Club, acting in the capacity of secretary for a period of 12 years. The Sydney Club were a clever combination. They won the Rawson Cup in 1912, but succumbed to Balmain in the final of the Gardiner Cup by 1-0 at No. 2 Sydney Cricket Ground.

Mr. Lind is also interested in sailing, yachting and rowing, and is a regular official at the Anniversary, Pittwater and Manly Regattas.

Though in charge of all athletic sport, Mr. Lind can be relied upon to give Soccer football the increased space it rightly deserves in the "Daily Telegraph."

"OLD TIMER."

FRED. SCRANTON

If to teach, serve and enjoy is the ideal aim of life; as one of the great philosophers has said: then surely he, of whom this is penned, has attained the lofty summit.

Look down the vistas of the past and gaze upon the many teams which he has nurtured and trained.

As the fabled Phoenix of old, ever arose from the ashes of the past. So no sooner did a team depart from the shadow of his mantle than with celerity another sprang into being.

He blended his every thought with their welfare.

With unbounded enthusiasm he viewed their struggles for supremacy. The music of his applause heralded the triumph of their achievements and when adverse currents crossed their path with unabated eloquence, he pleaded their cause and sounded a clarion note for their redress.

Overflowing with zeal and energy he takes his seat at the counsels of the Association, infusing into their deliberations a largeness of understanding, a loftiness of purpose and a masterful grasp of all problems which present themselves.

ROY OSBORNE

Roy Osborne, the youthful outside left for Pyrmont, is a junior of great promise. He has had rather a meteoric career so far, as he has jumped from playing under 18 to Senior Grade in one season. In 1919 he played for Leichhardt under 18 and in 1920 for Pyrmont under 18. In 1916 he toured Queensland with the N.S. Wales Schoolboys' Soccer Team. Last season he stripped for Pyrmont Seniors as outside left and fills the same position this year. Although only a youth, he is of good physique and possesses a rare turn of speed. He shows a slight inclination to work his way in on top of his inside man, and his crosses are at times a little weak, but these defects are ones that can easily be remedied. This year already he has figured in the Metropolitan Teams which played against the South Coast early in the season and against Newcastle some few weeks back. Pyrmont Club are to be congratulated in giving juniors such as he their chance in the higher grades.

Mr. Frank West, President of the Junior Association, has received word of the death of his brother in England. Soccerites generally, will sympathise with Mr. West in his sad bereavement.

Herb. Hatcher, the goalie who played with Dulwich Hill last season, is now with Canterbury in the First League. Hatcher first played Soccer in this State with Ashfield in the "A" Grade Junior in 1917, and later with Dulwich Hill in the same grade.

Jack Thirlwell, who represented for the Juniors against Newcastle in the 1920 season, is now the hon. secretary of the Canterbury Club (First League). He played with Maitland Old Boys in the "A" Grade Competition, and later with Granville in the First League. He was the fastest right winger playing Junior football.

Mr. F. W. Barlow, President of the N.S.W.S.A., expects to leave for New Zealand shortly in connection with the negotiations for the English tour.

EARLY MATCH—STATE CHAMPIONSHIP (Gardiner Cup). Qualifying Round.

Manly (N.S.W.) v. Fire Brigade, 1.45.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

The unbeaten teams in each of the First League divisions—Pyrmont and Campsie—suffered defeat last Saturday.

Although they have not won a match, Canterbury still persist in clinging to the short-sighted policy of fielding men with reputations for preference to giving junior players a chance to make good. Why? They cannot do worse.

Sid Storey's selection with an Australian team to tour New Zealand has been criticised severely by Newcastle supporters who want to know whether he is included in a playing or an official capacity.

Brennan's brilliant play along wing and his accurate placing of the centre was an important factor in Gladstone's success over Pyrmont.

Only one test match will be played between Queensland and N.S.W.—at Wentworth Oval on Saturday.

The Northern Association will spend £1,300 on ground improvements, and the erection of a grandstand on the Tramway Ground.

A player taking a penalty cannot follow on and score in the rebound if the ball strikes the uprights or crossbar. Offside is ruling given.

Sydney and Cockatoo Dockers now head the competition table in Second Division clubs.

Austen's omission as goalkeeper for the representative game on Monday is somewhat hard to understand.

Prior to last Saturday, the Eastern Suburbs eleven had never suffered defeat at the hands of Granville.

The tourists won their first game in the Dominion against Wanderers by three goals to one.

By the way, did you hear of the Scot who was a great soccer enthusiast? He walked two miles to see a big game, and when he got to the ground he found the fence was too high.

POT SHOTS

"The stubborn resistance of Crum." No leaf about Crum.

"A budding champion." Let's hope that he will not grow into a blooming nuisance.

Thirlwell and Wyber concerted nicely. A little duet, we presume.

"Balm applied pressure after a hot rally." Hot-pressed.

"Canterbury have not won a game this season." But there's plenty of Canter left in the 'Bury's, yet.

Young Timms, of Pyrmont, thinks that his feet were made for other reasons than to grow corns on. Certainly not for d—feet.

"He played dazzling football." Lit with the light of enthusiasm, we suppose.

"Good! that training oil must be the good oil." Ask R. Bennett, Canterbury.

Will it be loyal and patriotic to associate on the King's Birthday with a team which comes from a State where they are all Queenlanders?

There was never a game yet worth a jot.

For a rational man to play; into which no accident or mishap, could possibly find its way.

Legerwood leaves Burns Club and Donald Dunbar goes to fill the GAP.

Be careful Donald. It was at the Gap that the Wreck of the Dunbar happened.

Harry shone for Eastern Suburbs. The Star of the East.

Greenleaf slipping in front of the goal scored from a kneeling position.

He stooped to conquer.

Whiting of Marrickville would do better if he had a speedier partner.

Will you walk a little faster said the Whiting to the Snail; there's a tortoise close behind me, and he's treading on my tail.

Diamonds and other precious STONES need to be polished before they show their lustre.

But eleven GLAD STONES shone brilliantly at Wentworth Oval last Saturday, without the aid of the lapidary's art.

The Juniors of to-day are the Seniors of to-morrow, has become almost a parrot cry; but judging from the many transfers from Senior to Junior during the present season, the slogan will have to be altered to "The senior of to-day is the junior of to-morrow."

In honor of Burns' Club and Balmain Scottish appearing at the Oval next Saturday, the dressing-room steward should be robed in KILTS. With such a graceful figure he would look most picturesque in the changed attire.

THE REFEREE

(By "MAC.")

In a previous issue of "Soccer News" I stated that the "Laws of the Game" would be dealt with in ensuing issues, commencing with that of May 20, but owing to indisposition I was unable to do as intended. However, "better late than never," and although my idea then was to go through the rules from the beginning, circumstances alter cases, and, by request, I have decided to give the offside laws prior consideration, as it is the great question in the game to-day, as it always has been, and will be, until it is better understood by every one interested. It is a subject open for discussion, with great diversity of opinion, and is the cause of much friction on and off the field of play.

The offside law is as follows: "When a player plays the ball, any player of the same side who at such moment of playing is nearer to his opponents' goal-line is out of play, and may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent, or with the play, until the ball has been again played, unless there are at such moment of playing at least three of his opponents nearer their own goal-line. A player is not out of play when the ball is kicked off from goal, when a corner-kick or a throw-in is taken, when the ball has been last played by an opponent, or when he himself is within his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is played by any player of the same side."

Some explanation of the law is no doubt necessary to make it perfectly clear, and a careful study of the undermentioned should result in much benefit to all concerned.

It is not a breach of the law for a player simply to be in an off-side position, but only when in that position he causes the play to be affected.

A free-kick must not be given when a player is simply in an off-side position.

Play should not be stopped, and a player given offside because the player is in an offside position. A breach of the law is only committed when a player who is in an offside position interferes with an opponent or with the play.

If a player deliberately trips an opponent who is standing in an off-side position within the penalty area, and does not attempt to play the ball or obstruct, a penalty kick should be awarded.

A player who is in his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is last played, cannot be offside.

The point to notice is not where a player is when he plays the ball, but where he is at the moment it is played by a player of the same side. If a player is in line with or behind the player of the ball when it is played he cannot possibly be off-side, but if he is in front of him he is liable to be so. Though a player cannot be offside when an opponent last plays the ball, or when a corner-kick, a throw-in from touch, or a good kick, is taken, this protection ceases the moment a second player plays the ball, so that a player not off-side when such kick or throw-in is taken, may without having moved, be off-side as soon as the ball has been played. A player following up another of his own side who has the ball cannot be offside. Players may be offside when a free-kick or a penalty-kick is taken. An opponent playing the ball puts a player onside at once, but while standing offside a player must not interfere in any way with an opponent or with the play. If a player is standing offside, he is offside until the ball is next played, even though sufficient opponents fall back to make three between him and their goal-line.

A player who is an offside position is bound to keep out of the way of the play, and he is liable to be penalised if in any manner his presence causes any interference with the play.

When the ball is kicked off from either goal no player is offside.

A player once offside cannot put himself onside, this can only be done for him in three ways:—

(1) If an opponent next plays the ball;

(2) If he is behind the ball when it is next played by one of his own side;

(3) If he has three opponents between him and their goal-line when the ball is played by one of his own side further from his opponents' goal than himself.

The ball hitting the goal-post or bar and rebounding does not put a player onside who was offside when the ball was last played.

All players should pay particular attention to this: When the ball is played by one of your own side—except when he is taking a goal-kick, a corner-kick, or a throw-in—you have three opponents between you and their goal-line, or that you are in line with or behind the ball. Can anything be simpler? If your opponent plays the ball, or the ball touches him in any way, you are on-side, no matter where you stand, but when standing off-side you have no right to interfere with an opponent nor to station yourself so near the goalkeeper, or any other opponent, as to hamper his movement or obstruct his sight of the ball. When a player finds he is in an offside position it is his duty to keep clear of the play, and neither interfere with nor inconvenience an opponent nor make a pretence of doing so.

With offside is the one most frequently infringed and least understood. A player is onside at all times when there are three or more opponents between him and the opponents' goal-line. A player cannot be offside from a corner-kick, a throw-in, a goal-kick from either goal, a backward pass, or when the ball is last played by an opponent. It is important to realise that a player is adjudged on or off-side according to his position at the time the ball was last played.

Surely the foregoing is sufficient to make the law understood by everyone, as the explanation is all that could be desired.

Apropos the referees' strike in Queensland, there seems to be a peculiar state of affairs in existence (if the Press reports on the matter are correct), when one Association is denied equal representation with other affiliated Associations. The action is very drastic indeed when one delegate only is permissible, in place of five by every other Association, and formerly allowed the Referees' Association.

Referees are reminded that the next meeting will be held on Tuesday night, June 6. Badges are now available, and early application is necessary to ensure the rule referring to uniform being complied with. The referees' uniform is not complete without the official badge. The rule in this regard will be enforced by the Association. benefited thereby.

More referees are urgently required, and those aspiring to "knighthood" should get into communication with the Hon. Secretary, Referees' Association, as early as possible.

GRANVILLE ASSN.

Matches under the control of the above Association are proceeding satisfactorily every Saturday, and keen rivalry is shown among the teams.

Ten teams are engaged in the All Age Competition, seven in the Junior under 18, and seven in the Juvenile under 16. One team has been removed from the competitions for playing over-age boys and for general misconduct.

Entries for the Cotton Cup Competition will close at the Council meeting on Tuesday next. This Competition is run in memory of the late Jack Cottam, who played with Magpies for some years, but who played in a much higher game in the Great War. Jack was every inch a man, and his sweet memory will ever live in Soccer circles here.

If it were possible, a large number of cups could be competed for here in memory of other fine players and good men who played their last game with Jack.

All the grounds in this district have been placed at the disposal of the P.S.A.A.A., and matches are played every Wednesday and Friday.

Veteran Phil Williams is still at the helm in these school matches, having worthily piloted the Barlow Schools. He is doing equally good work for the P.S.A.A.A.

A big programme has been mapped out for the Queenslanders' visit on June 8. The District team will meet the visitors at Clyde at 3.15 p.m., Mr. Will Allerton referee.

METROPOLITAN JUNIORS

The early fixture on Primrose Park on Saturday last between Dulwich Hill Athletic and Hurlstone Park proved a stirring contest, the result being in doubt till five minutes before the final whistle, when Wilson netted the winning goal, by fielding a perfect corner kick by H. Bell.

The first half of the game was in favour of Hurlstone Park, and at half-time led by 1 to nil. The second spell found the "Hill" all out and by good combination were able to beat the solid defence of Hilton and Stanford, and netted two goals through the agency of Wilson and Orr.

The goal-keeping of R. White for Hurlstone Park, was excellent, and W. Greenstan, on the wing, also performed ably, and scored the only point for his team.

Cootamundra has formed a District Soccer Club.

LETTER BAG

"Soccerite" writes:—
Allow me to correct your previous references to H. Maunder, the brilliant centre forward, now touring New Zealand with the Australian team, as being an "erstwhile Auburn lad," and "did not learn his football in the Newcastle district."

The writer knows Maunder both as a Junior and Senior player for West Wallsend. During the early part of last season, business reasons compelled his transfer to Sydney—his election to field for Auburn was due to the fact that by playing with a Second League Club he would be eligible for inclusion throughout the Gardiner Cup games.

(To the Editor.)

Sir,—The publicity given to Newtown Juveniles has aroused a good deal of interest in the team, and a visit to their match against Stanmore, at Cook's River No. 1, on Saturday last, conveyed the impression that the praise in the main is well deserved.

One thing, however, was clearly apparent, and that is that the score instead of being 10 to nil, should easily have been twice as large. The fault lay in the play of Juveniles' right winger and inside right, both of whom appeared to forget that there were other capable kicks in the team besides themselves. Time and again shots were made by these players without result, from indifferent and impossible angles, when a pass to the waiting centre, left inside, or left wing would have meant an easy shot, with almost certain success.

If the team is to retain the proud distinction which it has attained, that of being unbeaten, there will have to be a decided improvement in combination, and less selfish play on the part of these otherwise reliable men.

Yours, etc.,
"CRITIC."

(To the Editor.)

Sir,—Reading your last edition of "Soccer News," you stated that Canterbury have good junior material to draw from, and why not give them a trial. Well, being a staunch supporter of Soccer in Canterbury, the team that should be playing first grade football is the Canterbury "A" Grade team, who have firmly fixed an idea in their heads to play first grade football together. As a team they are well balanced, have played together for four years, and would, in my opinion, give the best first-grade teams around Sydney a great game from whistle to whistle.

On Saturday week this team play Arncliffe, and if the match was played as an early game at Wentworth Oval it would prove what I've said; also that it would not be a fair thing for Canterbury to disorganise this fine Junior body of footballers. Seeing three of these lads played for Canterbury when they defeated that good team, Corrimal in the Nurse Cup last season, makes me say that Canterbury Juniors are very wise in not allowing their team to become disorganised when they have such glowing prospects before them. Trusting you will find space in "The Soccer News" for my few lines.—Yours, etc.,

STAUNCH SOCCER SUPPORTER FROM CANTERBURY.

(To the Editor.)

Dear Sir,—I note everyone is asking what is wrong with Canterbury. Well, I will tell you, we are experiencing the "Devil's" own luck (note the capital "D"). At the opening of the season we found that more than half of our last season's team were unavailable, hence we had to reconstruct, and we secured the services of several good men amongst the inevitable no goods. Our late secretary, Mr. W. H. Willingale, having gone to England, the bulk of the administration fell on my hands, and just as we were beginning to sort out our resources I met with an accident as you all know, which has kept me laid up ever since. Following this, my members have been unable to put a representative team in the field on any occasion, owing to sickness, injuries, and latterly I am afraid, on account of weak knees on the part of some players who could have assisted us to keep our reputation from falling to zero. They, however, preferred to join other clubs, with lesser pretensions after we had suffered a couple of defeats, and we found ourselves again up against it. Having once again got a clean bill of health my members selected a team to play last Saturday, which would I feel sure, have set us on the winning side. Upon taking the field they found no less than five of the players selected had failed to turn up.

Having filled in four of these positions they played with 10 men, and only suffered defeat by 3-1. However, the sun will shine out Canterbury way ere long. You will see us come up smiling, if the men with us will only put their mind into the welfare of the team and pull together. Re bringing up of Juniors: This theory is a great one, but in practice up our way, it doesn't work. If anyone can tell me how to induce young players to leave a team which have every chance to win their respective competitions and join a senior team who are doing badly, I would like to know. We find it absolutely impossible to induce them to come up. Their ambition, I am afraid, does not carry them this far. What we want is good inside forwards who can score goals. Are there any available who care to help an old club to keep their flag flying in the First Division? If they will write the undersigned I should be glad. In conclusion, I would like to ask the Referee Appointing Board to send us men who can referee. Although we are down bottom just now, we would like to get a fair deal, and my reports state that we have not received anything like one this season. Do Messrs. Lukeman and Wright ever visit the suburbs now? If so, we have not seen them out our way.—Yours, etc.,

RALPH H MIDGLEY,

46 Badminton Rd.,
Croydon.

FERNLEIGH DOWNS GLADESVILLE.

Fernleigh added another two points to their score at the expense of Gladesville. The scene was at Easton Park. Fernleigh's attacking forces were in good form and Gladesville's defence was completely non-plussed. Law, Batten and Leadbeater put up an excellent defence for Fernleigh, and Yabsley and Hancock were the most consistent forwards. Phillips was inclined to be selfish. He would do better by giving his wing men more opportunities.

For Gladesville, McNee performed ably in goal. Lyon and Gay were the best in the defence, but their forwards lacked sting when within shooting range.

Balmain Fernleigh's win on Saturday put them level with Pyrmont, each having 8 points, but Balmain Fernleigh should top the League table by having the better goal average.

JUNIORS

In defeating Stanmore by 10 goals to nil at Cooks River No. 1 last Saturday, Newtown Juveniles maintained their record as one of the unbeaten teams in the First Division "B" Grade Comp.

The match clearly demonstrated that the winners have lost none of their "punch," as they outplayed Stanmore in every department of the game.

The latest win brings Juveniles' total to 24 goals for the season, and on no occasion have their opponents scored against them.

Three players, viz.: W. Goldfinch, P. Ayer and G. Ellis have caught the selector's eye and have been chosen to represent Sydney at Newcastle on June 5th.

W. Goldfinch, who will skipper the team, has few equals at right back.

P. Ayer, centre-forward, is a consistent scorer, nippy and resourceful. He uses either foot when shooting and has netted 5 goals this season.

G. Ellis has more than justified his inclusion as a right winger. His tally to date is 5 goals.

Juveniles are looking forward to another win to-day, although they have drawn in Lilyfield, one of the most formidable teams in the Competition.

The early game at Primrose No. 1 should be well worth seeing.

ball rolling and soon attacked the Avoca's citadel, but the defence of Williams and Beauchamp was too solid, play being transferred to mid-field, and some good play was witnessed, the forwards of both teams in turn giving glimpses of good combination. Avoca made the pace and forced Joass, the 'bury full-back, to concede a corner, Algie Wright took the kick and placed the ball in front of the goal, and Heagney meeting, netted. Marrickville, 1-0.

The half-time whistle sounded immediately afterwards. The second spell Canterbury slightly re-arranged their team and meant victory. The whole team co-operated well, and by good passing rushes, took the ball to Avoca's goal, where Croser netted, 1-1. From this onwards, the game was interesting, and the crowds cheered their favorites. Condition was telling on the Avoca team, and by clever play Bennett beat the two backs and netted the winning goal for Canterbury.

The representative players from both teams to play at Newcastle on Monday, played splendidly, and thoroughly deserve their positions in the team. Mr. H. Cockwell officiated as referee.

On No. 2 ground Leichhardt surprised Balmain Gladstones and won comfortably by 4-1.

Annandale Altona were beaten by Lilyfield by 2-0 in a very ragged game.

Lilyfield "C" Grade received a set back by Camperdown Y.M.C.A., who delivered them their first defeat by 3 goals to 1. The latter team has improved considerably in the past two or three weeks.

MATCHES TO-DAY.

At Primrose Park Marrickville Avoca will meet Arncliffe Corinthians, the set-back given to Avoca by their defeat by Canterbury will make them be "all out" if they wish to be in the final. Arncliffe have obtained their full points, whilst Avoca are running three behind, a good even contest, with both teams trying hard, should be witnessed.

The early fixture between Newtown Juveniles (undefeated in the "B" Grade), will meet Lilyfield (1 defeat). The latter team have created surprises by defeating the strong Balmain Gladstones and Annandale Altona teams, in their last two games, and should provide a stirring contest against Newtown.

LAST SATURDAY'S

GAMES.

(By CENTRE-FORWARD.)

FIRST GRADE—1st Division.

Pymont Defeated.

Through the defeat of Pymont on Saturday the competition should be more interesting in the Metropolitan area, and it looks a good fight for Premiership between Pymont, Balmain Fernleigh, Balmain Gladstones and Granville, not forgetting that Pymont Rangers may have a possible chance.

Judging by the play on Saturday, Balmain Gladstones proved the better combination. They are a nippy team, and have confirmed their rise into first grade football, and gave Pymont a shock after 90 minutes' strenuous play.

Driscoll, Storey and Gallan were the most prominent in defence, while their forwards, Gowan, Miranda, Grohs, Brennan and Bolus proved the better combination in footwork, pace and judgment.

Brennan, of Junior fame, has proved worthy of his trial with Gladstones. He played a sterling game.

Pymont appeared to be over-confident, or they took their opponents too cheaply, and failed to accept every opportunity. Andrews was a severe loss at centre-half. Loveridge, who took his position, filled it admirably, while Gray, ably filled Loveridge's position at left half. On the day's play, Loveridge, S. Anderson, Maitland, Timms and Alewood were the best players for Pymont.

CANTERBURY JUNIORS
MARRICKVILLE AVOCA

As expected, a great crowd witnessed the game between the above-named teams on Primrose Park last Saturday, and both being unbeaten, made the game interesting. Canterbury's centre, R. Bennett, set the

HINTS ON LAWS OF THE GAME

(By "SPEC.")

Below are a number of questions re the laws of football. To referees they will be interesting by way of refreshing their memories, and to students of the laws the answers may supply some enlightenment on some points of which they are ignorant:—

(1) Can a player be offside from a penalty kick?—Yes, an isolated player of the attacking side might take up position alongside the 18 yards line between the penalty spot and the goal-line, and if the kicker passed the ball to him, or if from a direct kick the ball rebounded from upright or crossbar and he attempted to play it, the offside law would be broken.

(2) Can a player be offside when the ball is in play immediately it after a temporary stoppage?—No. The ball is in play immediately it touches the ground, and is merely a resumption of the game temporarily suspended.

(3) If a full-back, in taking a goal-kick, passes it back to his goalkeeper too sharply and it enters the net without the keeper touching it, what should your decision be?—Corner. A goal cannot be scored direct from a goal-kick, and the ball was put behind by a defender.

(4) Should a full-back, while his goalkeeper is temporarily out of his goal, handle a shot in attempting to prevent a score, but fails to stop the ball from crossing the line, should you award a penalty?—No. A good goal has been scored. To do so would be an advantage to the offending side.

(5) (a) In case of dangerous play taking place in the penalty area, what punishment should be awarded? (b) Give a good example of dangerous play.—(a) Free-kick (not a penalty offence). (b) Kicking recklessly at a high ball which an opponent is about to head or breast away.

(6) Can a player standing in an offside position break the "offside law" without moving or playing the ball?—Yes. If the run of the play caused him to be found in a position where he unsights a defender, or causes an opponent to have to go round him to get at the ball, he would have broken the offside law without necessarily moving.

(7) What offences by defenders within the penalty area are punishable only by a free-kick?—(a) Carrying; (b) playing the ball twice from the goal-kick or free-kick; (c) playing the ball before it touches the ground when dropped by a referee; (d) dangerous play; (e) after player sent off (following previous caution) for ungentlemanly conduct; (f) after player sent off without previous caution for violent conduct.

(8) Under what definition of law would you punish a player "setting a back" for an opponent tripping. Tripping or intention throwing, or attempting to trip an opponent by the use of the leg or by stopping in front of or hind him.

(9) How would you deal with a player who shouted "Right" "Leave it," with intent to put opponent off his game?—Ungentlemanly conduct. First offence, caution player and restart by dropping the ball. Second offence, player off and restart by ordinary free-kick (not a penalty).

(10) In what circumstances can a goalkeeper be charged?—When holding the ball, obstructing an opponent, or when he has passed his goal area.
